raises $1,454 for Northern Kentucky Children's Advocacy Center

FLORENCE, KY. Dec. 2, 2011. Party for Good Cause selected the Northern Kentucky Children's Advocacy Center (NKCAC) as the beneficiary of its first event, the "Black-n-Blue Ball." Attendees were encouraged to wear black shirts and blue jeans to the event at the Grandview Tavern on Oct. 15. The event included raffles, trivia, door prizes and silent auction with all proceeds benefiting the Northern Kentucky Children's Advocacy Center. The organization presented a check to the Advocacy Center for $1,454 as a result of the party. Says Karen Bieger (Florence), founder and manager of Party for Good Cause, "This gives us a way to help people and raise awareness about a charity while having fun. It was a terrific start for our organization, and we hope to do this again next year in an even bigger way." Says Vickie Henderson, executive director of NKCAC, "We're very proud to be the first charity chosen to benefit from this great organization."

About the Northern Kentucky Children's Advocacy Center

The Northern Kentucky Children's Advocacy Center is a nonprofit organization that provides services to children who have been sexually abused, severely physically abused and children who have witnessed violent crimes. In addition, the NKCAC provides supportive services for non-offending parents, caregivers, siblings, family members and professionals.

Our multidisciplinary team includes social workers, law enforcement, prosecutors, therapists, advocates and health care providers. Our child-focused, welcoming environment ensures that children are protected and that children and the non-offending adults who care for them can begin to heal. The Community Foundation of Northern Kentucky provides administrative and operational support to the NKCAC.

As the designated regional children's advocacy center, the NKCAC serves Boone, Campbell, Carroll, Gallatin, Grant, Kenton, Owen and Pendleton counties. More information is available on our website, www.nkycac.org.
